A Celebration of The Holy Eucharist (Rite II) - 10:00 AM

WELCOME TO CHRIST CHURCH!

We are delighted that you are joining us for worship today. Everything needed to fully participate in today's worship is found in this Order of Service, taken from the Book of Common Prayer. All hymns are found in the blue Hymnal 1982, located in your pews, at the numbers indicated in this Order of Service. If you need any assistance, do not hesitate to ask an usher for help. In The Episcopal Church all baptized Christians are welcome to receive the sacrament of Holy Communion.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Keep, O Lord, your household the Church in your steadfast faith and love, that through your grace we may proclaim your truth with boldness, and minister your justice with compassion; for the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Please be seated.

THE FIRST READING, read by David Alvaro.

Genesis 18:1-15, 21:1-7

Lector A Reading from the Book of Genesis.

The Lord appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day. He looked up and saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent entrance to meet them, and bowed down to the ground. He said, “My lord, if I find favor with you, do not pass by your servant. Let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. Let me bring a little bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on—since you have come to your servant.” So they said, “Do as you have said.” And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, “Make ready quickly three measures of choice flour, knead it, and make cakes.” Abraham ran to the herd, and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to the servant, who hastened to prepare it. Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree while they ate. They said to him, “Where is your wife Sarah?” And he said, “There, in the tent.” Then one said, “I will surely return to you in due season, and your wife Sarah shall have a son.” And Sarah was listening at the tent entrance behind him. Now Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in age; it had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women. So Sarah laughed to herself, saying, "After I have grown old, and my husband is old, shall I have pleasure?" The Lord said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh, and say, 'Shall I indeed bear a child, now that I am old?' Is anything too wonderful for the Lord? At the set time I will return to you, in due season, and Sarah shall have a son." But Sarah denied, saying, "I did not laugh"; for she was afraid. He said, "Oh yes, you did laugh." The Lord dealt with Sarah as he had said, and the Lord did for Sarah as he had promised. Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the time of which God had spoken to him. Abraham gave the name Isaac to his son whom Sarah bore him. And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him. Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him. Now Sarah said, "God has brought laughter for me; everyone who hears will laugh with me." And she said, "Who would ever have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age."

THE PSALM APPOINTED: 116:1, 10-17 Prayed by all in unison.

1 I love the Lord, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, * because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I called upon him.

10 How shall I repay the Lord * for all the good things he has done for me?

11 I will lift up the cup of salvation *
and call upon the Name of the Lord.

12 I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
in the presence of all his people.

13 Precious in the sight of the Lord * is the death of his servants.

14 O Lord, I am your servant; * I am your servant and the child of your handmaid;
you have freed me from my bonds.

15 I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving *
and call upon the Name of the Lord.

16 I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
in the presence of all his people,

17 In the courts of the Lord's house, *
in the midst of you, O Jerusalem. Hallelujah!

THE SECOND READING, read by Gary Lorentzon

Romans 5:1-8

Lector A Reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans.

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person-- though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

All stand for The Holy Gospel.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Matthew 9:35-10:23

Celebrant ✝ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, O Christ.

Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest." Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him. These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: "Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.' Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment. Take no gold, or silver, or copper in your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics, or sandals, or a staff; for laborers deserve their food. Whatever town or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy, and stay there until you leave. As you enter the house, greet it. If the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it; but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet as you leave that house or town. Truly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town. “See, I am sending you out like sheep into the midst of wolves; so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. Beware of them, for they will hand you over to councils and flog you in their synagogues; and you will be dragged before governors and kings because of me, as a testimony to them and the Gentiles. When they hand you over, do not worry about how you are to speak or what you are to say; for what you are to say will be given to you at that time; for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death; and you will be hated by all because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next; for truly I tell you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.”

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

The Reverend Stephen C. Tamke
Rector

THE NICENE CREED, prayed by all, please stand.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the + resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE, read by Lesley Stackler.

With confidence in God's mercy, let us pray for the Church and the world, and all those in need, saying "Lord, hear our prayer."

For the wider Church: for Sarah, Archbishop of Canterbury; Sean, our Presiding Bishop; Lawrence, our Diocesan Bishop; Adam, our Bishop-Elect; Stephen, our Rector; and for all the clergy and people, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For all elected officials, Donald our President, Kathy our Governor, and for the leaders of the nations, and for all in authority, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For first responders, emergency personnel, health-care workers, and all who keep our communities safe and well: protect them in danger and sustain them in long hours and hard tasks, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For those serving in the armed forces and their families, at home and abroad: grant them courage, compassion, and the support they need; bring peace where there is conflict, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For our local community: for our schools, businesses, neighbors, and civic institutions; for ministries of mercy in this place; that we may be agents of hospitality, reconciliation, and common good, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For the earth, our island home: for all creatures, land, air and sea; give us wisdom to care for creation, to steward its resources, and to pursue sustainable life for future generations, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit, especially, Charlie, John, John, Sarah, Jonathan, Sara, Pattie, Sheila, Jody, Allie, Dominick, Jillian, Neil, Jane, Sean, Annmarie, Mary-Ann, Cathleen, Myron, Stacey, Thombi, Julia, Lynn, Elletra, Debbie, Meriam, Joan-Marie, Al, Frida, Polly, Elizabeth, Rita, MaryAnn, Annemarie, Carol, Bridget, Alyssa and Andrew give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation.

The flowers on the Altar this morning are given in honor of the Revolutionary War Patriots: Dr. James Cogswell, Samuel Davenport, Daniel Whitehead Kissam, John Thorne, and Wilson Williams, buried in the Christ Church graveyard. These flowers are great blessings which offer to us in their beauty the words of God's creation, for through flowers we see the poetry of Christ.

✝ We commend to your mercy all who have died that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

Celebrant Gracious God, in your mercy accept these prayers and those of your people in every place. Keep us steadfast in hope, courageous in love, and faithful in service, through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

THE WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE OFFERTORY HYMN 455

O love of God, how strong and true
DUNEDIN

All stand to sing the Doxology as the Offertory Plates are brought forward.

THE DOXOLOGY

OLD 100TH

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise Him all creatures here below;
praise Him above ye heavenly host; praise ✝ Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

The people stand, sit, or kneel. Then, the Celebrant continues,

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new. And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

The Celebrant & People pray together,

We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you, Lord our God.

The Celebrant continues,

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your † Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ. Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace. Remember all who minister in your Church. Remember all your people, and those who seek your truth. Remember all who have died in the peace of Christ, and those whose faith is known to you alone; bring them into the place of eternal joy and light.

And grant that we may find our inheritance with the Ever Blessed Virgin Mary, with patriarchs, matriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever.

THE GREAT AMEN, sung by all.

McNeil Robinson
(1943-2015)

THE LORD'S PRAYER

The Celebrant introduces the prayer, saying

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated bread. A period of silence is kept.

This setting may be sung full by all, or by the choir, or as a versicle and response.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

A PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

(for those joining via the live-stream to pray on their own)

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

THE COMMUNION HYMN 405 All things bright and beautiful ROYAL OAK

THE POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Celebrant and People together pray,

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

THE BLESSING, all stand for the blessing.

The Peace of God which passes all understanding, keep your heart and mind in the knowledge, and love of God, and of his Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ; and the blessing of God Almighty, ✠ the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you always. Amen.

THE CLOSING HYMN 541 Come, labor on ORA LABORA

THE DISMISSAL

The Celebrant dismisses the people with these words,

Deacon: Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

PARISH GATHERINGS

PATRIOT DEDICATION: Wednesday June 17th, 2026 at 12:00 pm

On behalf of Christ Episcopal Church in Manhasset, I am honored to extend to you an invitation to a special commemorative ceremony marking the unveiling of a newly installed sign recognizing five patriots interred in our historic churchyard.

This occasion is being held in partnership with the Sons of the Revolution as part of the observance of the 250th anniversary of our nation's founding. The ceremony will honor the lives and service of these individuals, whose contributions to the cause of American independence remain an enduring legacy within our community.

The event will take place at Christ Episcopal Church, and will include brief remarks, a formal unveiling of the commemorative sign, and a moment of reflection in gratitude for the sacrifices made by those who helped shape our nation.

We would be deeply honored by your presence as we gather with local leaders, community members, and historical organizations to mark this significant milestone in our shared history.

DAILY BREAD MINISTRY: Sundays: June 14

In the 25th chapter of Matthew's Gospel, Jesus teaches that whatever we do for those in need, we do for him. Our Daily Bread Ministry will provide a fun way to come together as a church in service of Christ and those in need. We will meet once a month in the Parish House Kitchen to bake quick breads for local shelters, providing nourishment and joy to our community. Please join us following Fellowship on one or all the Sundays listed! A volunteer sign-up sheet is in the back of the church. Walk-ins are always welcome. Monetary donations are always needed. If you have any questions, please email Phoebe Miller

SUMMER HOME COMMUNIONS: Wednesday Evenings, June 24, July 22 & August 26 at 6:00 pm.

With the return of summer comes the return of our tradition of Summer Home Communion, brief celebrations of word and sacrament joined together with fellowship and pot-luck supper. All are invited to this event, and we encourage you to bring a friend. Summer Home Communion are a wonderful way for new members to connect with parishioners.

Oriana & Nick Cyprus have graciously offered to host June 24th, April & Bill Cornachio on July 22nd. and Senetta Koch & Anita Schmidt will close out the Summer Season at Senetta's home on August 26th.

A sign-up sheet is in the back of the church for June 24th Summer Home Communion. Please bring your favorite appetizer, cold or hot entrée or a summer salad. A limit of two or three desserts is all that is needed.

ADULT EDUCATION

BEYOND THE BIBLE: Tuesdays, June 16, 23, 30, July 7 & 14 at 7p.m.in-person & Zoom.

Father Stephen is offering a six-week Tuesday evening class this Summer, beginning on Tuesday June 9 at 7:00pm called "Beyond the Bible: Exploring the Early Church." In this class we will look at how we got the Bible, voices that were not included in it, life in the earliest Church, defending the faith in the early Church, who is Jesus, and from a movement to the Church.
