THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Please be seated.

The First Reading, read by Bill Cornachio Revelation 7:9-17

Lector A Reading from the Revelation to St. John the Divine.

After this I, John, looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying, "Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen." Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. "For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm Appointed: Psalm 34:1-8 sung by the Choir.

Refrain sung once by the choir, then by all, and by all where the ℟ indicates.

1 I will bless the LORD at all times; *
his praise shall ever be in my mouth.

2 I will glory in the LORD; *
let the humble hear and rejoice.

3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the LORD; *
let us exalt his Name together.

4 I sought the LORD, and he answered me *
and delivered me out of all my terror. ℟

5 Look upon him and be radiant, *
and let not your faces be ashamed.

6 I called in my affliction and the LORD heard me *
and saved me from all my troubles.

7 The angel of the LORD encompasses those who fear him,*
and he will deliver them.

8 Taste and see that the LORD is good; *
happy are they who trust in him!

The Second Reading, read by David Alvaro 1 John 3:1-3

Lector A Reading from the First Letter of John.

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

All stand for The Gospel Verse & The Holy Gospel.

"Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy-laden: and I will give you rest." - Matthew 11:28

The Holy Gospel Matthew 5:1-12

Celebrant ☩ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, O Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. "Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. "Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. "Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. "Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Reverend Stephen C. Tamke
Rector

The Nicene Creed, prayed by all, please stand.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the ☩ resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People, read by Jeannine Daly

With confidence in God's mercy, let us pray for the Church and the world, and all those in need, saying "Lord, hear our prayer."

For the wider Church: for Sarah, Archbishop of Canterbury; Sean, our Presiding Bishop; Adam, our Diocesan Bishop; Stephen, our Rector; and for all the clergy and people, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For all elected officials, Donald our President, Kathy our Governor, and for the leaders of the nations, and for all in authority, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For first responders, emergency personnel, health-care workers, and all who keep our communities safe and well: protect them in danger and sustain them in long hours and hard tasks, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For those serving in the armed forces and their families, at home and abroad: grant them courage, compassion, and the support they need; bring peace where there is conflict, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For our local community: for our schools, businesses, neighbors, and civic institutions; for ministries of mercy in this place; that we may be agents of hospitality, reconciliation, and common good, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For the earth, our island home: for all creatures, land, air and sea; give us wisdom to care for creation, to steward its resources, and to pursue sustainable life for future generations, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit, especially, Charlie, John, John, Sarah, Jonathan, Pattie, Sheila, Jody, Allie, Dominick, Jillian, Neil, Jane, Sean, Annmarie, Cathleen, Stacey, Julia, Lynn, Elletra, Polly, Elizabeth, MaryAnn, Annemarie, Alyssa, Andrew, Declan, Emily, Cynthia Doug, Jack, Chris; Dorsey, David, Neil Kristine and Lauren; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation.

The flowers on the Altar this morning are given in loving memory of Robert L. Schmidt by the Schmidt Family. These flowers are great blessings which offer to us in their beauty the words of God's creation, for through flowers we see the poetry of Christ.

☩ We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

Celebrant Gracious God, in your mercy accept these prayers and those of your people in every place. Keep us steadfast in hope, courageous in love, and faithful in service, through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

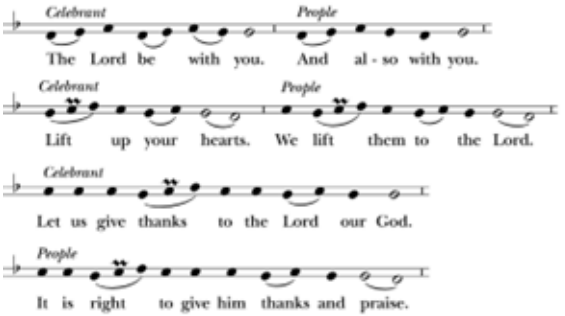
THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

The Great Thanksgiving Eucharistic Prayer A



It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and every where to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For in the multitude of your saints you have surrounded us with a great cloud of witnesses, that we might rejoice in their fellowship, and run with endurance the race that is set before us; and, together with them, receive the crown of glory that never fades away. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus & Benedictus, sung by all Proulx

Music: From A Community Mass; Richard Proulx (b. 1937). Copyright © 1971, 1977 GIA Publications, Inc.

The people stand, sit, or kneel. Then, the Celebrant continues,

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith: said by all.

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues,

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. ☩ Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

The Great Amen — Proulx

The Lord's Prayer, The Celebrant introduces the prayer, saying,

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated bread. A period of silence is kept.

This setting may be sung full by all, or by the choir, or as a versicle and response.

A Prayer For Spiritual Communion

(for those joining via the live stream to pray on their own)

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

The Communion Hymn 293 I sing a song of the saints of God GRAND ISLE

The Post-Communion Prayer, Celebrant and People together pray,

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing, all stand for the blessing.

The Peace of God which passes all understanding, keep your heart and mind in the knowledge, and love of God, and of his Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ; and the blessing of God Almighty, ✠ the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you always. Amen.
